President's Message

Let me take the opportunity to welcome you back after what I hope was an enjoyable summer. The pictures you have taken will tell your story. Those who attended the club's annual picnic will agree with me that we had a wonderful day.

We were entertained by a gospel band; the Rangers taught us how to fish using hook and line. There were bounce about and slides for the kids.

I must say thanks to Cookie and Ron for volunteering their time and effort for six weeks of in-depth workshop training in Photoshop Elements 7. Visitors and members from the Flushing camera club were included in the attendees.

With eight active committees in place, we look forward to a rewarding year. Our programs committee has set-up a program of events for the year to include beginners and professionals alike. No member will be left behind. Let's work together for another successful year. Audley

Please welcome our 2010/2011 officers and committee heads to the SEQCC; many have held on to the title for a number of years. We wish them well and please do not hesitate to join a committee and lend a helping hand. Remember, a club is as strong as its members. Just don't join, get involved. Good luck and congratulations

Tribute to Our Very Own Judson Dinkins

At our June 22nd meeting, during our awards ceremony, President Audley Smith, and Webmaster Ron Caldwell on behalf of the SEQCC membership presented Judson Dinkins with a Life Membership plaque for his diligent devotion and contributions to the camera club. Judson has stepped up to the plate with his tireless efforts and generous monetary contributions throughout the years. He has also served with distinction as the first treasurer from 2005 until June 2009.

We are also indebted to Judson for his donation of 15 copies of "The Keys to Great Photographs" for us to give to new members who are "B" workers. Judson worked out this arrangement with us last season and this is the second season for us to benefit from his generosity. Judson has indicated that he plans to continue this arrangement for the next few years. A heartfelt THANK YOU to Judson for his generosity to the SEQCC.
